
2016 EsF Reading Group Summary

Reading and reflection is an important part of an EsF Assembly.
Following is a short summary of a group discussion on the following text.

The Creative Capacity of Early Childhood

31 July 2016, Group #

The Main Points Of Discussion:

All of us agreed that to educate the world we have to educate the human being from the time when the human being is not yet defined ...

There was a debate on the word 'cultivate' to the present context. Some of the members were of the opinion that in today's world these terms could mean something different like 'Genetically Cultivated'.

The lexicon of the author or the transcript itself should be considered.

Some of the members strongly believed that the terms were used according to the social needs and the situation. Vocabulary doesn't matter as much as the work itself.
