

30 July-13 August 2016
Hyderabad, India

Serving Humanity-Celebrating Solidarity
Fifth Assembly of Educateurs sans Frontieres

Week 1: Serving Humanity - Global Activities

Saturday, July 30	Arrival and Evening Reception Greeting
Sunday, July 31	Orientation and Introduction to EsF: “Working for Social Change: A Montessori Perspective” — Lynne Lawrence , AMI Executive Director and Philip O’Brien , AMI President
Monday, August 1	The History of Montessori in India Uma Ramani (India/United States), AMI Primary Trainer
Tuesday, August 2	Montessori Pedagogy: Reading and Study Session: Principles into Practice
Wednesday, Aug. 3	Building Montessori Families Vidya Shankar (India), Founder and Chairperson of Relief Foundation
	Scaling up: Montessori Principles in the Public School System Amukta Mahapatra (India), Director Schoolscape
Thursday, August 4	UNESCO, AMI and advocacy Victoria Barrès (France), AMI representative to UNESCO
Friday, August 5	Site Visit in the Hyderabad Region
Saturday, August 6	Early Childhood Education and Teacher Training in Haiti Carol Guy-James Barrett (Haiti), Technical Advisor Peter Hesse Foundation

Week 2: Celebrating Solidarity - Serving the Underserved

Sunday, August 7	Day off
Monday, August 8	Basic Principles for Volunteering Christine Harrison (Australia), President of Montessori Australia Foundation and AMI board member
Tuesday, August 9	Montessori Principles for Communities in Poverty Charo Alarcon (United States), Education Coordinator at Lumin Education
Wednesday, Aug 10	Montessori in Early Childhood Development as a Pathway to Community Development Megan Davies (South Africa), Programme Lead Indaba Montessori Academy, the Sustainability Institute in Cape Town, South Africa
Thursday, Aug 11	Montessori and Native Culture and Language in Indigenous Communities Jacquie Maughan (United States), AMI board member and NAMTA President
Friday, August 12	Closing address by André Roberfroid , AMI Global Ambassador Group Discussions Concluding Session Farewell Banquet
Saturday, August 13	Departure

Morning Sessions 9:00 – 12:00 / Afternoon Sessions 14:00 – 17:00
Programme may be subject to change